

Funded by:

BOARD OF STATE AND COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS

Partnering with Home Visiting: Best Practices for Critical Family Services

Anna Gruver, LCSW

Maternal, Paternal, Child and Adolescent Health Coordinator
Alameda County Public Health Department

Population Served

<20,000 Births in Alameda County

6,000 Medi-Cal Births

~ 27% or more
Postpartum Depression

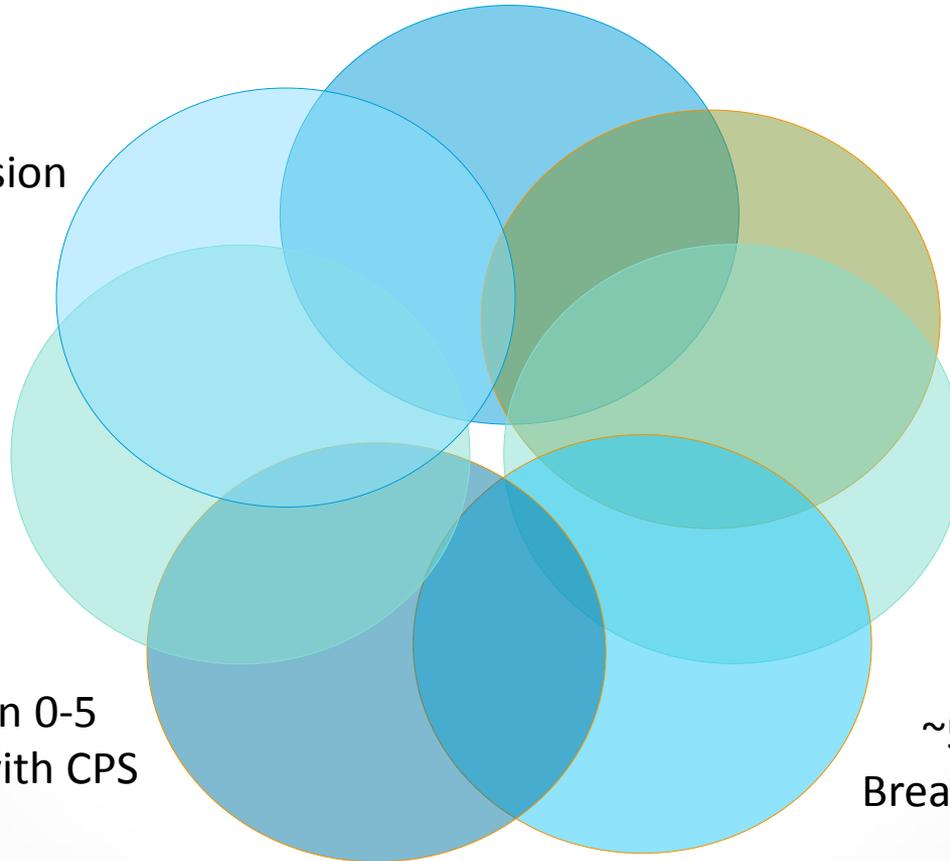

1,500 Born
Low Birth Weight

1,500 Births to
Teen Mothers

At-risk
African American Families

6,000 Children 0-5
Have Contact with CPS

~50% Experience
Breastfeeding Problems

Vision

We serve:

Low-income and vulnerable pregnant women, mothers, fathers, and families with young children in Alameda County.

Vision Statement:

Pregnant women, mothers, fathers and families with young children will live in healthy and thriving communities and will have access to comprehensive, responsive, community-driven health care.

Programs involved

ACPHD Administered:

- Black Infant Health
- Fatherhood Initiative
- Family and Women Health Promotion
- MADRE
- Nurse Family Partnership
- Special Start
- Healthy Families Alameda County
- Special Start at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Oakland
- Pregnant and Parenting Teen Programs--Brighter Beginnings and Tiburcio Vasquez Health Center)
- Public Health Field Nursing
- Asthma Start

Public Health Nursing

Improving Pregnancy Outcomes Program

Homeless Families

Women and Family Health Promotion

Alameda County Healthy Start Initiative

Black Infant Health

Nurse Family Partnership

MADRE

Black Infant Health

Integration
common outcomes
quality assurance
lifecourse & strengthening families
common standards
training & professional development
data & evaluation

Asthma Start

Special Start

Special Start

Nurse Family Partnership

Black Infant Health

Your Family Counts

Pregnant & Parenting Teen Programs

Healthy Families Alameda County

Public Health Nursing

Asthma Start

Pregnant & Parenting Teen Programs

Integrated Family Support System of Care

System Components

Alameda County Public Health & First 5 Alameda County Partnership

Alameda County Public Health

- Internal Reorganization
- Contract Management
- Day-to-Day Operations
- Quality Assurance
- Fiscal Leveraging

First 5 Alameda County

- Outreach
- Funding Contribution
- Training
- Data/Evaluation Support
- Social Marketing

Other Partners

- Alameda County Social Service Agency
 - Behavioral Health Care Services
 - Community Based Organizations

More Strong Partnerships

- Behavioral Health Care Services Partnership- 2 Mental Health Clinicians funded by MHSA dollars
 - Probation Partnership Board of State and Community Corrections funds 1 PHN in NFP
 - Executive Committee
 - Steering Committee
 - Community Partnership
- Common Outcomes Framework

Contact Info

Anna Gruver, LCSW

Maternal, Paternal, Child and Adolescent Health Coordinator
Alameda County Public Health Department

510-667-4334

Anna.Gruver@acgov.org

